At St Rose we respect others.

We are good listeners because we:

- look at and listen to the person who is speaking
- put our hand up when we want to speak
- wait our turn to speak when someone else is speaking
- show that we are interested by asking questions