Hopes and Dreams
Expectations

• Students will be happy and reach their potential.

• They will be challenged in their learning and encouraged to foster their talents and develop new ones.
Moving from Stage 2 into Stage 3

- Children are expected to act responsibly in their learning and in the playground.
- Children should aim to be a strong role model for younger students.
- High work standards are expected in Stage 3.
- Over the next 2 years, an important focus is upon organisational skills to support the transition into high school.
- Children are expected to carry out their leadership roles in a responsible, independent manner.
